DO YOU HAVE THE SKILL SET TO BECOME A PROFESSIONAL DUE PROCESS ADVOCATE?

In today's world, a vast majority of the people (including, perhaps, yourself) are involved in some type of legal issue. Unfortunately, most folks don't realize that the protection of their due process rights is absolutely critical when a serious problem raises its ugly head. No matter what the problem, a person's ability to prevail is often directly proportional to one's ability to exercise his or her due process rights.

In most cases, as soon as the opposition is able to orchestrate a proceeding in such a way as to suppress or deny basic due process rights, the opposition has "clear sailing" and gains an extraordinary advantage. Equally important is the fact that many folks simply don't realize that their right to be heard and their right to a fair legal proceeding are not "privileges" that are extended by an authority (such as a court). They are constitutional rights which should not be trampled on by anyone.

Nevertheless, the "powers-to-be" (big institutions and big businesses) know that the fastest way to get money from individuals, or masses of individuals, is to operate in a manner that stifles, suppresses, or even removes due process rights.

After all, without the right to be heard within a fair proceeding in a legal forum, the odds of winning any legal battle, big or small, are drastically diminished. For this fundamental reason, the business of providing due process advocacy is fast becoming a very respected profession; one for which you might have a unique interest and, also, be a perfect candidate!
