The Due Process Advocate

Thank you for your possible interest in The Due Process Advocate.

Perhaps like myself, you're listening to the news every day and wondering what in the world is really going on?

I believe it is fair to say that mainstream America is now caught in the middle of the most vicious political war that this country has ever experienced. The devastating consequences and fall-out related to the irreconcilable differences between the Democrats and Republicans spells irreparable harm for the entire country and, ironically, for the supporters of both political parties.

Despite all the political rhetoric and self-serving accolades that are bantered about 24/7 by the high-ranking politicians, individual rights (especially due process rights) are at an all-time low in this country.

As a result of these difficult circumstances, the core mission of The Due Process Advocate is the advocacy of individual due process rights. We're accomplishing this objective by providing the real education and information you need to dramatically improve your chances of success. The mission is straightforward: Find out what your due process rights really are and then assert those rights in your day-to-day life. If you do that you will be way ahead of the game!

However, please don't believe that your constitutionally-guaranteed due process rights are automatically protected by all of the local, state, and federal institutions that control life in America. It's just not true.

The fact of the matter is that big business and big government take extraordinary amounts of your freedom and money from you, each and every day, by making sure you don't, or can't, exercise your due process rights.

I hope you'll decide to learn more about your own due process rights and I hope you'll take advantage of the efforts and work by our readers, supporters, followers, members, clients, and affiliates if/when you run into an urgent matter that involves your own rights.

Regards & all the best,
